FINANCIAL GOALS

By: Nancy Medrano

LONG-TERM CAREER GOAL

When I grow up I want to join the Army.

I want this career because the us army protects other people and they offer you a job a education. You learn and train in new skills.

* Search Results
* Army Basic Pay for Enlisted Ranks. Enlisted soldiers in the Army have ranks from E-1 to E-9. In 2014, the initial monthly pay for the lowest rank, E-1, is $1,531.50 per month, although E-1s with less than four months of experience earn $1,416.30. Pay increases with each rank and with years of experience.

LONG-TERM HOUSE GOALS

* I want to buy a house.
* I want to stay in VA.
* The price of the house I want is $920,000
* Est. Mortgage$3,471/mo

Long-Term Goal #3

* Buying a car is also important to me.
* 2015 Chevrolet Corvette Stingray.
* Horsepower: 455 to 460 HP
* MSRP: From $55,000
*

SUMMARY OF LONG TERM GOALS

When I start my job I am going to make a budget on everything I need to pay so, I can spend my money on a efficient way.

How do I accomplish my long-term goals?

* To accomplish my goals the first thing I have to do is graduate from high school. I also have to be trained to join the army & save money to buy the car I want.